

Seas of New Faces © 2010 Yvonne Hartman

Capo 2

G D A Em
The sun peeks through my window and calls me out of bed.
G D A Em
It's Sun - day morning and thoughts run through my head.
G D A Em
So many things to do today, I could just stay home.
G D A Em
Pay the bills, do the wash, call a friend on the phone.

Am Em G D
But it's Sunday and I should go to church.
Am Em G D
We left the old one, so we are on the search.
Am Em G D
It's hard to visit places, seas of new faces
Am Em G D Am Em G D
Will they be nice? Will I fit in? What do they - believe in?

G D A Em
It's Monday and I start a new job today.
G D A Em
Kids are off to school and I drive away.
G D A Em
So many things to learn today - couldn't I stay home?
G D A Em
I need to pay the bills - like food and telephone.

Am Em G D
But it's Monday and I should go to work.
Am Em G D
Oh, to stay home, what is it worth?
Am Em G D
It's hard in new places, seas of new faces.
Am Em G D Am Em G D
Will they be nice? Will I fit in? What do they - believe in?

Instrumental Interlude

Am Em G D 2x

Ending:

Am Em G D
Jesus, my Lord, be with me.
Am Em G D
Help me find your loving peace.
Am Em G D Am
Walk with me, carry me....
